It's easy to search Wikibooks by topic, and there are separate sections for recipes and childrens' textbooks. You can download any page as a PDF using a link provided in the left-hand menu, but unfortunately there's no support for other formats. There's also Collection Creator - a handy tool that lets you collate several pages, organize them, and export them together (again, in PDF format). It's a nice feature that enables you to customize your reading material, but it's a bit of a hassle, and is really designed for readers who want printouts. The easiest way to read Wikibooks is simply to open them in your web browser.

Re: 60 HP Mercury Bigfoot Performance Question I'm betting on the throttle not opening all the way, is there a lot of movement on lever after putting it in gear before it starts throttling up? A 14x11 should be the perfect prop for a 2.33 gear case 60hp engine on a pontoon and 21-22mph should be expected with a light load.
