Hidden Cathy Glass
Another amazing book by Cathy Glass. Hidden is about a boy who lived in the same world we live in but in another part we don't know the truth of. Young Tayo was a multiracial boy who lived in 21st century London, but have never been written as it's citizen. He somehow was hidden from the public and social services.

Hidden by Cathy Glass - Goodreads
"Cathy Glass" never fails to amaze me with her writing style, and how she can integrate the stories of children she has been a foster parent to while integreting the lives of her own family. Hidden is about a child she received with no history who was polite, intelligent, and had a severe problem with his dark skin.

Reviews for Hidden: "Like Tayo I was abducted by my father. He had me for 12 months before my mother found me. I was luckier than Tayo though, I didn't suffer at the hands of my father as Tayo did with his mother. There should be more people in the world like you Cathy, who do make a difference. I can't wait to read your other books."
