Ribbons: A Priest with AIDS, Rosemary Bailey's account of her brother's 10-year ordeal, coincides with the 50 th anniversary of Parliament's passing of the Sexual Offences Act 1967, which partly decriminalised homosexuality. Almost 20 years after the Labour Government's landmark social reform, the newly ordained Rev. Simon Bailey experienced a brief joyous period of gay liberation before taking up his first post as rector of the tough South ...
